

BURIAL RITES TOMORROW FOR MRS. ROSA E. BOOTH

Mrs. Rosa E. Booth, widow of John D. oBoth, former superintendent of the old St. Louis Transfer Co., will be buried tomorrow in Calvary Cemetery after services at 9 a. m. at St. Rose's Catholic Church, 1001 Goodfellow boulevard. Mrs. Booth, who was 81 years old and the former Miss Rosa Reynolds, died Saturday at her home, 5647 Maple avenue, of infirmities. Her husband died seven years ago. Surviving are four sons, Joseph M., Frank A., Harry A. and Leo A. Booth; two daughters, Mrs. William F. Ebbing and Mrs* J. T. Cummiskey; twenty-nine grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren. The body is at Kriegshauser Mortuary, 4228 South Kingshighway.