

y to ten years in prison.

The two civil cases set for oral argument include a test suit over disputed taxes and an appeal from the St. Clair Circuit Court which held against Mrs. Alberta Krupp in a suit to prove her heirship to an interest in the estate of the late Albert F. Sackwitz, Marissa. Mrs. Krupp claims she is a daughter of Sackwitz who died February 5, 1958. Mrs. Krupp's appeal will be argued September 30.
