

FORMER ST. LOUISAN INJURED.

Mrs. C. E. Ford, Victim of Run-away in Canton, O.—May Die.

Mrs. C. E. Ford, who was seriously injured in a runaway at Canton, O., Friday, formerly lived in St. Louis, at No. 3053 Sheridan avenue, and for a number of years she was a teacher in the St. Louis public schools.

Her maiden name was Sarah Ann Dale. Last March with her husband she left St. Louis for California, where they spent several months, returning to St. Louis in August, en route for New Orleans, where they expected to reside in the future. Mrs. Ford has many friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. C. E. Ford was driving in Canton with Mrs. C. F. Snyder of Massillon. Their horse became frightened at a pile of rails, ran away and threw the ladies out of the carriage. Mrs. Ford was thrown against a tree, her head striking with such force as to render her unconscious for a short time. Her head and face were severely cut. She had several ribs broken. She was taken in an ambulance to the home of Mrs. Snyder.
