Wauneta Bates, who is featured in "Red, Bright and Blue," due tomorrow at the Embassy.

Review Booked For Embassy

"RED, Bright and Blue," featuring Wauneta Bates, labeled "Miss St. Louis," and comics Frank X. Silk and Slat Taylor, will arrive at the Embassy tomorrow.

Performances are continuous daily, including Sunday. Stage shows are supplemented by films.

"Red Bright and Blue" is said to have experienced performers, including Dorothy DeHaven, Ermaine Parker and Del Markee. Johnny Kanes' song and dance ensemble introduces a new routine entitled "Tap a Jap." Bert Saunders appears as straight men for the comedy of Silk and Taylor.

The Vaudeville Interlude bring a threesome of LaRue and Carroll, adagio and knockabout dancers; Two Lucky Bucks, colored boys in fast steps and comedy, and Shannon and Mein, a dance team.
