This information is from the book, Thomas Mudgett of Salisbury, Massachusetts and his descendants, 2nd Edition, by Everett F. Mudgett.

The number by each name indicates the generation they belong to.

Thomas Mudgett (1) Shipwright, was in Salisbury, MA as early as 1663 and evidence points to the fact that he was the Thomas Mudgett of Virginia. The tradition has been that he was the son of Thomas Mudgett (born in England in 1614) who married Ann Woreton or Worton. There was a death in 1663 in Salisbury of an unidentified Mudgett. Whether this was Thomas, Sr. or of his son John, who was also in Virginia, is unknown. For this genealogy Thomas, Jr., is called Thomas (1). He married on 10-6-1665 SARAH (CLEMENT) MORRILL, a widow with a large family. He married in 1695, ANN (FRENCH) LONG, another widow. (b. 3-10-1659)

JOHN (2) b. 12-17-1700 d. between 4-18 and 5-28-1746 m. Susanna Scribner.

Besides the shipyard, Thomas (1) had two-thirds interest in a fulling mill and owned half a sawmill.

In 1690, forty-one men of Salisbury became Freemen of Mass. Bay Colony but of
