

Hodiamont Streetcar Kills Elderly Woman

Mrs. Minnie Kash, 65 years old, of 5930A Wabada av., was struck and killed by a Hodiamont streetcar at 8:30 a. m. today on the Public Service Co. right-of-way at the Wabada av. stop, north of the Wellston loop. The victim was pinned beneath the car and had to be removed by an emergency crew which jacked up the wheels of the car.

Shelby Keith, 44, of 1364 Clara av., operator of the car, said the woman was running along the opposite tracks when she suddenly veered into the path of his car.

Keith was charged by police with manslaughter and careless operation of a street car, returnable in Court of Criminal Correction No. 1, December 30.
