Mr. Holmgren Dies Friday at Hospital

Adolf William Holmgren, 320 Sycamore Road, died Friday evening about 8:15 o'clock at the Glidden Memorial Hospital. In poor health for several years, he had only been seriously ill for one week.

Born near Elva October 18, 1884, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Holmgren. The family moved to Plano when he was an infant. He came to DeKalb when he was 17 years of age and was employed by the American Steel until his retirement five years ago.

He was united in marriage at Elgin August 21, 1937, to Ruth Elizabeth Westedt. He was a member of the Methodist Church and the Modern Woodmen of America. Mr. Holmgren was particularly interested in flowers and gardening and interested in people, especially youngsters, and was always busy repairing toys for the youngsters.

Surviving are the wife; one brother, Charles W. Holmgren of Joliet; two sisters, Mrs. Neo Johnson of Esmond, and Mrs. Charles H. Bannister of DeKalb; and several nieces and nephews. A brother, Roy, preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Wirtz Funeral Home with Rev. Russell W. Lambert, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Fairview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home until the time of the services.
