

Received of Ignatius A. Schwedtman a native of Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Thos. Boescher a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he arrived in the United States a MINOR, under the age of eighteen years; that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Prince, Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of Germany of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said Ignatius A. Schwedtman is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

October 30th 1896

Frederick Bollerberg a native of Germany who hereby testifies, admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Wm. K. Koenig a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year; immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide an inhabitant of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he does absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power, Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Empire of Germany of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said Frederick Bollerberg is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

October 3rd 1861

John Wagner a native of Germany

who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of John Wagner, his father, that he is a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he arrived in the United States a MINOR, under the age of eighteen years, that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity every Foreign Prince, Potestate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of Prussia, and that he doth solemnly swear to support the same, of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said John Wagner is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

Charles S. Mary _____ a native of _____ _____ a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he arrived in the United States a MINOR, under the age of eighteen years; that he resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he does absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power, Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the _____ of _____ of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said _____ Charles S. Mary is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

Michael Calish a native of Switzerland October 9th 1896 who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Paul H. K. Smith a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he was born in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure every other allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power, Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the said Michael Calish of Switzerland whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said Michael Calish is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

October 30th 1896

Frederick William Vogel a native of Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of
And Vogel a competent witness, a citizen of the United States, that he was born in the United States at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States; and he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince, Potestate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and faithfully to the United States of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said Frederick William Vogel is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

[illegible]

October 3rd 1896

John Booth a native of England

who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of John Menden a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he arrived in the State of Missouri at the age of eighteen years; that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he both absolutely renounces and abjures forever all allegiance owing to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said John Booth is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

Frank B Ward October 9th 1896 a native of England
 a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he arrived in the United States a MINOR, under the age of eighteen years; that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last
 past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he does absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power, Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said Frank B Ward is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

George Hall a native of Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States, comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Matthew Rogers a credible witness, a citizen of the United States, that he has resided in the United States at least five years, including the years of his minority, and in the State of Missouri at least one year, immediately preceding this application, during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court, upon oath, that for three years last past he has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Prince, Potestate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of Great Britain, and to the Emperor of Austria, of whom he is at present a subject, therefore the said George Hall is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES.

366 Ignatius Al Schwettmann native of October 3rd 1896 Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Thos Boisselier credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years . including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor of Germany of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Julius Al Schwettman is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES .

Fritz Bitterberg a native of October 3rd 1896 Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of F. E. Schoenberg a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and pay to the Emperor of Germany of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Fritz , living John Wagner October 3rd 1896 a native of Germany the plies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Jas Bokedn a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor Germany whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said John is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES . of Wagner (Charles S. Mary October 3rd 1896 a native of Switzerland who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Rudolph Gross . a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Republic of Switzerland of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Charles S. Mary O is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES .

Michael Culibrk October 3d 1896 a native of Austria who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Frank J Lee a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor of Austria of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Michael Culibeis admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES .

Frederick William Vogel a native of October 3rd 1896 who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Fred Pagel Germany credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor of Germany of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Frederick William Vogel is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES . Otto F. Zeng October 3rd 1896 a native of Germany who applies to be admitted a ten of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Andrew G. Stembremer a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor of Germany of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Otto F. King is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES . John Booth October 3rd 1896 a native of England who replies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Merser a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the meen of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said John Booth is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES . of Frank B. Ward October 3rd 1896 a native of England who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Thos G Ward a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State or Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he is at present a subject , therefore the said Frank B. Ward is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED STATES . a native of George Holl October 3rd 1896 Germany who applies to be admitted a citizen of the United States , comes and proves to the satisfaction of the Court by the testimony of Mathias Wregert a credible witness , a citizen of the United States , that he arrived in the United States a MINOR , under the age of eighteen years ; that he has resided in the United States at least five years , including the years of his minority , and in the State of Missouri at least one year , immediately preceding this application , during which time he has conducted himself as a man of good moral character , attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States , and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same ; and the said applicant declaring here in open Court , upon oath , that for three years last past it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States , and he declaring also upon oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States , and that he doth absolutely renounce and abjure forever all allegiance and fidelity to every Foreign Power , Prince , Potentate , State of Sovereignty whatsoever , and particularly to the Emperor of Germany whom he is at present a subject , therefore the is admitted a CITIZEN of the UNITED No of 367

Citation:

"St. Louis, Missouri, United States records," images, FamilySearch (<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-CS9Q-LQ39-2?view=index> : Jan 27, 2025), image 262 of 351; .

<https://www.familysearch.org/ark:/61903/3:1:3Q9M-CS9Q-LQ39-2?view=index>