was born Jun 1858 in Blount County, Alabama, and died Bef. 1940. He married ELIZA JOHNSON 17 Jan 1878 in Blount County, Alabama. She was born 01 Mar 1860 in Alabama, and died 28 Mar 1940 in Blount County, Alabama.

Notes for JOHN WILLIAM HOGELAND:

Enumerated in the 1880 census of Blount County, Alabama, page454B, township 12.

According to the 1900 census he was living at the home of his parents and states that he is single. This would mean that he and Eliza were divorced. He is also enumerated as the head of household and still married in the 1900 census.

We don't know where he is buried at. It is believed that he is buried somewhere at Oak Grove but don't have a headstone. His wife's Death Certificate says that she was widowed, so he died before her.

Notes for ELIZA JOHNSON:

After her daughter Cynthia's husband ran off with her granddaughter, Granny Hogeland would walk the floors at night calling out her name. Oh I wonder where my Vergie is;over and over again. This had to effect her mentally like it did her daughter. When Uncle Junior (Johnnie) was born,it was about the time of the Lindberg baby kidnapping. She would tell everyone that the kidnappers were coming to get him and didn't want to let him out of her sight because she loved him so much.

Have not been able to find her parents after much searching in the Blount County census records. Her son in law John P. Staton was the informant at her death and listed her parents as unknown.

Death Certificate # 052300 states she died of Pellagra and that she was senile.

Notes for CYNTHIA HOGELAND:

Cynthia married a man that was involved in illegal activities. I was told he was like a mobster. They had one daughter and when she was little, he ran off with her. The family tried to find her but they couldn't. It drove Cynthia crazy with grief and she was institutionalized at Brices Mental Hospital in Tusculum, Alabama.

Hubert and Ethel Hays visited her at the hospital after she had been in there for some time. When they told the people there who they wanted to see, they were amazed because she hadn't had any visitors in years. Aunt Ethel said Uncle Hubert bought her a Coke and she drank it like she had never seen one before. All this time her daughter had been told that her mother was dead and she had no other family. She grew up not knowing that she had a mother. She later found out after her father had died, he didn't even tell her the truth while she was sitting with him on his deathbed. She said he had every chance to tell her but never did make it right with her. She told Mam Maw and Aunt Ethel that she had to wonder where he was at. There was probably nothing wrong with Cynthia but just pure grief over losing a child.

Notes for JOHNNIE HOGELAND:

Mother told me this story. Mam Maw said that he cussed every other breath but one day a man visited them and he cussed real bad too. After the man left he asked Mam Maw if he sounded like that. She told him that he did and she said that he quit cussing. All the time he wasn't aware that he was using bad language.

Gail Minyard(Hays) told me this story about him that she heard from Mam Maw. After him and Allie Mae was married they were poor as about everyone else was back then. One day he went to the store because he wanted some meat to eat for supper. Allie Mae told him to bring her back some coffee. He got the meat but forgot her coffee. She wanted to know why he got what he wanted but she got left out. While they were talking their dog snuck up and ate the meat he had bought. So they sat on the porch that night and laughed about how neither one of them got anything but the dog was happy.

Notes for ALLIE MAE MCCLENEY:

She worked as a janitor as a small girl about 11 or 12 at the South Carolina school she went to. She would arrive early and start the fire to warm the South Carolina school and stay late to clean up at the end of the day.

Allie Mae was affectionately called Mam Maw. When her first husband Johnnie died, she was left alone to raise four children. Her baby girl Carol Ann died about three months after her husband. Mam Maw told me a story about me when I was a baby. After we moved back from Indiana, when I saw her I motioned with my hands for my Mam Maw. She was tickled that I was as happy to see her as she was to see me. She later married Dewey Bowen he was a widower. They had met when they were young and later met again at the cemetery, where he was putting flowers on his late wife's grave. He had three children; Ollis, Oliver and Madeline. They had one child together Louise. No one could ask for a better mother or grandmother. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone.

I remember her setting around making quilts that have become family heirlooms. A finer Christian lady you'd never meet, I know her main goal in life was to see her family again in heaven, she told me this more than once. I counted it an honor to have known her and miss her deeply. Our birthdays were one day apart and she always called me before I went to work, no matter how early it was. My birthdays are not the same anymore. The reason I entitled this book "Family Flowers", Mam Maw always told us to give her flowers while she was living not after she was gone. {Told by Mark Smith}.

Notes for HUBERT HAYS:

Uncle Hubert was the finest Christian man I have ever met and helped change many lives. I am sure everyone in our family could tell many heart warming stories about him. We spent a lot of time together fishing and playing cards. The story I have chose to share is this; before he died I went to his house to visit him . He was in a great deal of pain but he wanted to play one more game of 500 rummy with me. I tried to talk him out of it but he wouldn't take no for an answer. We played a lot over the years and he taught me well, I was close to his equal but not on that day. He beat me real bad like he had many times before. It was his way of saying good bye to me. He could figure out any puzzle and beat anyone at checkers. {Told by Mark Smith}

He met his future wife on May 1, 1948, they were introduced by his sister Evelyn at the Hays Decoration. He asked her out to a movie and dinner, they went to see a western movie in Trafford. Upon carrying her home he said "I hope you don't think I'm crazy but will you marry me." Aunt Ethel said "You're crazy."

28 days later bells rang and birds sang, they were married.

On their honeymoon they went to the Tennessee River in Guntersville. He already had that trip planned so he combined a family outing with his honeymoon. Also going along with them were his cousin Bud Neely, his wife Willa Mae and two children and his brother Oscar Hays, his wife Jewel his four children: Jimmy, Dale, Sonny and Lillian. Also Ethels brother Oliver.

This is the blessing that was passed down in the Hays family. He never ate without saying this blessing first:

"Smile on us Heavenly Father, forgive us of all wrongs, give us humble hearts, sanctify and bless these table comforts for the nourishment of our souls and bodies. We ask it all in Jesus Sweet and Holy name."

This remembrance is told by his daughter (Jennifer Gail Hays). Looking back on yesteryear, I can't help but remember a lifetime of cherished memories. Times that were only then living in the moment, that now those moments are wonderful times to reminisce. I remember very special times when my father would take me to my cousins for the weekend, it was one of the many places I made my precious memories from. I loved to visit Robin, Sheila and Ronnie they were more like brothers and sisters to me than first cousins. We would spend hours listening to music, go for long walks, shared thoughts and would go to concerts. There was a lifetime of fun in those short years of visits. I still think of them often and I love them very much, sometimes I feel sad that we don't talk or see each other as much as we did in our youth {life passes much to quickly}.

My father was good about letting me go with him to see friends and family in Blount County. If it weren't for my father, I would have never known the love of having pets. He was great about giving into me about letting me have the dogs and cats I wanted. I think back about my dad and how good he was, and how he got so much enjoyment from helping others. He was always there to help whoever needed him. My dad was one who enjoyed the simple things in life. He loved playing cards and was quite good at it. I remember him always playing cards and checkers at our dining room table. He taught a lot of people how to play down through the years. My cousin Mark being one of them and now Mark plays like my dad, its hard for anyone to beat him. My dads other passions were fishing, hunting and all sports but fishing was on top of them all. After all his heart problems he spent a lot of time fishing thanks to my cousin Mark it made his last few years easy to bear. Fishing was one of the things that gave my dad pleasure and happiness. His heart was so bad that he couldn't drive anymore so my cousin Mark made it possible for him to keep doing the thing he loved the best, fishing. Mark would also come by after work to play cards to pass the time together. My dad was also a good sportsman, he learned to take defeat by the ones he taught to play. My dad was many things to many people but most of all he was a good father to my sister and me but most of all he was a remarkable Christian who lived his life not only by his words of praise of the Lord but by his actions. I know when my dad entered the pearly gates of Heaven, Jesus was happy and proud to have welcomed him home. He was one man who touched many hearts and lives, daddy will never be forgotten. I tell his grandchildren about him often, they love to hear the stories about his life and how brave he was and how he made his life count. Anyone who knew him only had fond memories of him.
