

110 Lawyer, a subscribing witness to the aforesaid instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of John Mills, late of Charleston, Merchant deceased, who being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he was present and saw in the said instrument of writing duly executed by the said John Mills, and deposes further, that the said John Mills, at the time of executing the said instrument of writing was to the best of his present knowledge and belief of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding and that said Henry Charlesbrook (the Defendant) and James B. Campbell and John William King in the presence of each other and of the said John Mills, and at his request signed their names as witnesses to the due execution of the same.

Shown and subscribed to before me this 25th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine.

George Buist, Probate Judge

The State of South Carolina
Charleston County

In Probate Court: I George Buist, Judge of the Court of Probate for Charleston County in the State aforesaid, do hereby certify the annexed preceding pages to be and contain a true and authentic copy of the original last will and testament of John Mills, late of the City of Charleston and State of South Carolina, deceased, and of the whole thereof, as the same has been and is established and admitted to probate and record in the Court under a decree dated on the 10th day of November 1869 in conformity to acts of assembly of said State to pass both real and personal estate of and belonging to said decedent in his life time and at his decease. That the same continues unrevoked and in full force and was established and proved on the testimony of two of the subscribing witnesses, to wit: John William King and Henry Charlesbrook, both attorneys at law residing in Charleston, and the preceding pages are and contain a correct and true copy of said testimony signed by said witnesses in full force with their oaths further certifying that Henry B. Raymond of Charleston attorney at law, sole nominated executor was in due form of law qualified, executor of and under said last will and testament on the said 10th day of November, Anno Domini 1869 and to him and in his name letters testamentary issued under the hand and seal of this court and are entered of record, that no letters testamentary or of administration has been granted to any other person, except as will now have the same been revoked; that witnesses in full force with all the rights, powers, good authority and authority to the office of executor in the State, I do further certify that I am sole Judge of the Court of Probate for Charleston County in said State and there is not my clerk of said Court and that in any official capacity as Judge I am ex officio in law the sole clerk now in these any other officer of said Court nor any judge, chancellor or clerk, or any other officer of the said Court, having supervision of the acts of the Judge of the Court of Probate of the County and State of South Carolina, and I do further certify said Court is a Court of record, and the records of said Court are in my sole possession, keeping and custody and under my sole control. I do further certify that this testimony and the foregoing attestation is in due form of law.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal the first day of December Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and sixty nine.

George Buist.

Judge of Probate, Ex Officio Clerk.

Stamps

Surrogate's Office
County of New York

Cancelled

I, Gordon J. Tucker, Surrogate of the County of New York do hereby certify that the last will and testament of John Mills, late of the City of Charleston, State of South Carolina, deceased, has been admitted to probate as a personal property upon the production of a duly authenticated copy thereof, and I further certify that the foregoing is a correct record of such authenticated copy.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand this twenty-third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Robert C. Hitchings

Dated: March 17-1873

Surrogate.

U.S.D. Probate of the Will of Samuel Dury. Deceased. In the Name of the Honor. Samuel Dury of the City and County of Charleston, State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and in his full and perfect mind, and declare this my last will and testament.

I give devise and bequeath to my executors my property real personal or mixed of whatever kind and wherever situated, consisting of which I may die possessed or which may be devised, or C.T.A. Trust nevertheless and to the following sum and purposes: Said sum of $100,000 I direct my executors to dispose of the property which I may come into their hands in the manner and to the following named persons, viz: to my nine children named Jane, Samuel, Frederick, Anne, Charles, William, Isaac, George and Richard, share and share alike all the money which I possess or which may be devised after paying my just debts and deducting necessary expenses, also in the manner, share and share alike. Nine hundred shares of the stock of the Charleston River Mining Company