Testimony on Pleading. We show the matter of the estate of Samuel Drury, deceased, on open court this 12th day of March A.D. 1869.

City County of San Francisco
Frederick Wickard, of lawful age, being duly sworn in open court testifies as follows: I reside in this City and County of San Francisco Drury, the deceased in his life time. At the time of his death he was a resident of the City and County of San Francisco. He died on the 22nd day of February, 1869, at the County of Santa Clara, in this State, and was at the time his death of the age of eighteen years and upwards. He left no children in this County. His family consisted of his five children, to wit: Jane, Samuel, Frederick, Louis, Charles, William, George and Richard. The document or instrument now shown to me, marked and filed in the Probate Court, on the first day of March, 1869, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, was signed by me as a witness thereto in the presence of the testator and at his request and in the presence of William M. Chavers and James Shannon, the other persons whose names are subscribed thereto as witnesses. They signed the same as witnesses in the presence of the testator, and at his request and in my presence and we signed in the presence of each other and the said Samuel Drury signed the same in our presence, and then and there declared, the same to be his last will and testament and all on the day of which it bears date. At the time of making and signing the said instrument the said Samuel Drury was of sound & disposing mind and not under restraint or undue influence or fraud, but was in perfect state of mind.
