

Patty Trent Callaway, Wife of Dudley Callaway, Named as Heir of Henry Trent of Amherst County--Will dated 27 Dec 1793, proved 17 Oct 1796 (Amherst County, Virginia, Will Book 3, p. 397)

Daughter Patty Callaway one third part of my land on Johns Creek whereon she now lives; slaves Molly, Dilce and Will

Other bequests:

Son John B. Trent tract where I now live; slaves Jesse, Ailce and her child (a mulattoe named Fanny) and James; also a feather bed and furniture.

Daughter Eady Mitchell one third part of my land on Johns Creek whereon she now lives; slaves Hannah, Edmund and Selah; a feather bed and furniture which she has; also my riding beast.

Daughter Sally Goodwin one third part of my land on Johns Creek being the land next to James River; slaves Murning, Solomon and Sulph.

Granddaughter Nancy Giles a Negro Boy named Pompey, a feather bed, furniture and choice cow & calf.

Son Obediah H. Trent 5 pounds.

Son John Henry Trent a Negro Boy named Gabriel which I desire be hired out till the said John Henry Trent shall be of age.

Grandson Alexander Trent a Negro Girl named Zada.

Grandson Henry Trent a Negro Girl named Roda.

Thomas Mitchell keep Zada and Roda for three years, then John B. Trent keep them for three years, then Thomas Mitchell keep them for two years, then my Executors hire them out till Alexander Trent comes of age, then deliver Zada to him; also when Henry Trent comes of age, deliver Roda to him.

Executors: son Obediah Henry Trent, Ambrose Rucker, Thomas Moore

Witnesses: Joseph Magann, Micajah Goodwin, Archelaus Mitchell, Junr., Charles Carter.

Slaves bequeathed in Henry Trent's will: Molly, Dilce, Will, Jesse, Ailce, Fanny, James, Hannah, Edmund, Selah, Murning, Solomon, Sulph, Pompey, Gabriel, Zada, Roda