DANIEL REED (3), of Norwalk, Conn., was a man of considerable distinction in his time, of more than ordinary ability and of fine appearance. Newton Reed said of him that he built a house about 1720 one-half mile from the old homestead, a large and fine house in its day, two stories, front and rear. There all of his children were born and they were all rocked in the cradle which Mr. Newton Reed found there in 1835. There he found also the family record. Daniel Reed was among the first members of the church which was organized in June, 1774, and called "Middlesex Church," within the present site of Darien.

Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Reed, was a daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Plume) Kellogg, a direct descendant of Court Nicholas Bouton of France; of Robert Plume, Gent., and Grace Crackbone of Spaynes Hall, County Yeldham, England; of Sir John Morton of Bedfordshire, England; of Sylvester Baldwin of Astori Clinton, Bucks County, England, and on the Kellogg line she traced her ancestors to 1488.
