(New England Historical and Genealogical Society, July 1929), 83:354. He [John Chapin] married..PHILLIPE EASTON, who married again, at Paignton, 26 Jan. 1600/1, George Stone of Paignton, who died between 20 Jan. 1614/15, when his will was dated, and 1[?] Jan. 1616/17, when it was proved. George Stone's wife, Phillipe, probably survived him, for he made her executrix of his will and residuary legatee, and bequeathed to her and her son, Samuell Chapin, his "furnace and all the furniture thereunto belonging" and his "brassen crocke," and to Thomas Chapine, his wife's eldest son, the bedstead over the hall and the tableboard in the hall and the rest of his other "crocks."
