

Note:

The following is a section of a family history compiled by Herbert Armstrong Poole between 1905 & 1960, transcribed by AAA Maitland 1998. Subject numbers are HAP's originals.

HAP's page divisions are shown: after subject page numbers are complete document page numbers in brackets and issue dates.

The original text had generations indented in turn: here, generation numbers are added to each individual: the children of the title subject are "1/--".

Subject 310, P1 (302)

CHRISTOPHER HAWKHURST

The following is from the New York Genealogical & Biological Record, Vols 32 and 33, which gives the Hawkhurst descendants for many generations: from "The Genealogy of Francis Weekes", by Dr. Frank Edgar Weeks, Kipton, Ohio, 1938: and from "The Dodge Genealogy", by Theron Royal Woodward, 1904.

The name is spelled in many different ways, such as Hawxhurst, Harkhurst, Hawksworthe, etc: I have adopted the spelling of many of the present family.

Christopher Hawkhurst's birth and death dates are not known. He came to New England in 1630, with his sister Mary, wife of Robert Coles, subject 618, and landed at Salem, Mass.; he then moved to Ipswich, Mass. In 1653 he was at Warwick, L.I., and in 1653 went to Oyster Bay, L.I., when he sold his home in Pawtucket, R.I., and bought a lot at Matinecock, L.I. He was on Long Island at the time of the settlement of the estate of his father in law Henry Ruddock in 1674. He bought some land from the Indians in 1682,
