

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP: On 19 April 1635 "Symeon Hayte and Bernard Lumbard and their wives" joined the church at Scituate [NEHGR 9:279].

FREEMAN: 18 May 1631 [MBCR 1:366].

OFFICES: Dorchester fenceviewer, 8 October 1633, 24 May 1634 [DTR 3, 6].

ESTATE: On 3 April 1633 "Symon Hoite" was responsible for building forty feet of fence at Dorchester, based on ownership of two cows [DTR 2]. On 6 January 1633/4 it is "ordered that the marsh and swamp before Goodman Hosford and Davy Wil[ton] shall be divided among themselves and Symon Hoyte" [DTR 5]. On 2 June 1634 it is "ordered that Goodman Witchfeild and Goodman Hoyte shall have to be divided between them the marsh that lies in the north side of the neck towards Boston over against Mr. Rainsford's house in Boston, being for 8 acres by estimation" [DTR 6]. On 10 February 1634/5 "Simon Hoyte" was ordered to keep one of the bulls in the neck of land [DTR 10]. On 17 April 1635 it is "ordered that the lot of meadow which was Symon Hoyte's next to Boston side joining to John Witchfeild shall be divided betwixt Mr. Rodger Williams and Gyles Gibbes" [DTR 11].

In his accounting of houses built at Scituate, Rev. John Lothrop included "Goodman Haite's" as the sixteenth, about midway in the section of those built between September 1634 and October 1636, and with the annotation "which Mr. Bower hath bought" [NEHGR 10:42].

In the Windsor land inventory on 28 February 1640/[1] "Symon Hoyte" had granted from the plantation for meadow and upland "four-score acres," also "on the northside of the rivulet fourscore acres, thirty [of?] which is given his son Walter Hoyte from the town" [WiLR 1:88].

Five of the children of Simon Hoyt gave in receipts for their portions of his estate: Samuel Firman "to my mother Hoyt for all demands from my father's estate," 25 March 1662; "Moses Hoyte of Westchester, discharge to Joshua Hoyt of Stamford," 2 April 1666; "Samuell Hoyte, receipt for portion from father Simon Hoyte," April 1665; "Samuel Finch, receipt for wife's portion from father Simon Hoyte," April 1665; and "Benjamin Hoyte, receipt to brother Joshua Hoyte for portion from father's estate," 27 January [blank] [TAG 11:34; Gillespie Anc 289].

On 1 February 1674 Moses Hoyt, Joshua Hoyt, Samuel Hoyt, Benjamin Hoyt, Thomas Lyon, Samuel Finch and Samuel Firman came to an agreement "concerning the distribution of the estate of our deceased mother Susanna Bates" [Gillespie Anc 289-90, citing Stamford LR A:61].
