

Came to Massachusetts Bay in 1635 on the Truelove. (On 19 Sept 1635, "Tho[mas] Tibbald's," age 20, was enrolled at London as a passenger on the Truelove.) His 1st residence is unknown, but he was in New Haven in 1639 & moved to Milford in 1640. He was baptized at Great Hampden, Buckinghamshire, 27 Jun 1613. son of Thomas Tibballs.

He married 1st by about 1642 Mary _____. She died at Milford on 18 Jun 1644. They had 1 known child.

He married 2nd by 1645, _____. They had 6 known children.

He died at Milford 8 Apr 1703, as "Sergeant Thomas Tibballs Senior."

Thomas sailed for New England with Zachariah Whitman {1635, Dorchester}, John Stream {1635, Weymouth}, and Thomas Stream {1635, Weymouth}, and was associated with the 1st two of these families in Milford, suggesting that he was related to one or both of them, and perhaps resided with one of them at Dorchester or Weymouth during the 1st years after his arrival in New England.

Source: Anderson's Great Migration Study Project