

▼Facts and Events

Name[1]

Captain John Fayerweather

Gender

Male

Birth[1]

20 Sep 1634

Charlestown, Suffolk, Massachusetts, United States

Marriage

15 Nov 1660

Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, United States

to Sarah Turner

Marriage

bet 13 Nov 1674 and 24 Nov 1674

Swansea, Bristol, Massachusetts, United States

to Elizabeth Allen

Marriage

17 Nov 1692

Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, United States

to Mary Hewes

Death[1]

14 Apr 1712

Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, United States

▼References

1    ↑ 1.0 1.1 1.2 Carney, John B. In Search of Fayerweather: The Fayerweather Family of Boston. New England Historical and Genealogical Register. (New England Historic Genealogical Society, Jan, Apr, Jul, Oct 1990; Jan, Apr, Jul 1991; Jan, Apr, Jul, Oct 1992), 144:8–16. John<sup>2</sup> Fayerweather (Thomas<sup>1</sup>) was born at Charlestown, Massachusetts, 20 September 1634, according to the Fayerweather File at Westborough. In an error that appears to be a reversal of the correct order, his birth in 8th month [October] 1634 and baptism on 21, 7 month (September) were recorded in Boston records (BRC 9:2,3); Samuel Sewall in his Diary noted on 14 April 1712 that "this day Capt. John Fayerweather dies, born in Boston, Sepr 1634. A good Christian Member of the old Church" (The Diary of Samuel Sewall 1674–1729, M. Halsey Thomas, ed., 2 vols. (New York, 1973], 2:686). He was buried in tomb no. 43 on the south line in the South Burying Place [Granary Burial Ground], Boston (Annual Report of the Cemetery Department of the City of Boston for the Fiscal Year 1901–1902 [Boston, 1902], 63–64).