

Sheriff Keeps Slayer of Wife Hand Cuffed

PARAGOULD—Funeral services for Mrs. Bertie Dunham, 36, who was slain Thursday by her husband, Lee Dunham, 45, during a rage of insane jealousy at their home two miles northwest of this city, were conducted this morning from the Mount Zion church, near Walcott, 14 miles west of this city.

Sheriff Len Waldrum announced that Dunham still is handcuffed in his cell at the county jail and is being watched to prevent him from taking his own life.

Sheriff Waldrum said that Dunham handed his son, Earl, 18, a note yesterday after Dunham had been tied up. The note indicated that Dunham planned to kill himself.
