

BURIAL SATURDAY

Death today removed from DeKalb one of its finest old gentlemen when Charles Mollander, for many years a respected resident of this community, passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hilma Holmgren, 320 Sycamore road.

Mr. Mollander has been ill for a long time and it has been regarded for some time that his end was imminent. He has made a brave fight against the malady that resulted in his demise, but his age was against him and he died last evening.

Charles Mollander came to this country from his native Sweden when but a small boy. He was born in the northland nation on April 17, 1852, but in his early youth his parents came to America to set up a home.

He has been a familiar resident of this city for a great number of years and numbers his warm friends by hundreds.

He leaves to mourn his loss two sisters, Mrs. Hilma Holmgren and Mrs. C. A. Anderson, and a brother, Aaron Mollander, all of this and a brother, John Mollander, living in Denver, Colo.

It has been announced that funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of his sister, Mrs. Holmgren, 320 Sycamore road.
