

Rites Are Held Here Today for Aaron Molander

Funeral services for Aaron L. Molander, a life-long resident of this city, were held this afternoon at two o'clock from the Molander residence, 907 North Fourteenth street. Burial was in the Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Molander was for many years a watchman at the Creamery Package company, being forced to give up his position about two years ago because of failing health. Previous to that time Mr. Molander was a member of the DeKalb police force.

Mr. Molander leaves to survive, his widow, two sisters, a brother, three step-daughters and a step-son, in addition to many other relatives and friends.
