

DIXON, ILL., FEB. 23, 1903.

SHE MARRIED THE HIRED MAN.

Divorced Husband Supplies former Wife With Funds After Her Wed- ding to Another.

Sterling Gazette: A sensational wedding occurred Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Orillia Kelley by which she was married to Lon Aaron Molander formerly of Tampico township and now of DeKalb. About three weeks ago Mrs. Kelley was granted a divorce from her husband, Molander, previous to this time, was employed by Mr. and Mrs. Kelley on a farm in Tampico township for eight years. When Mrs. Kelley applied for a divorce her husband did not contest the proceeding. After she was granted the divorce, he still supplied her with the necessities of life. Recently she fell and broke her arm, and he paid this doctor bill. He did not know the couple had been married until this morning. Wednesday, however, he sent his former wife five dollars, believing that she was in need of food and clothing.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Molander moved to DeKalb, where they will make their future home. Mr. Kelley has gone to Arkansas. Mr. Kelley appears to be a very fair-minded man, and has nothing to say in regard to the proceedings.
