KAUFFMAN—COFFMAN FAMILY

ISAAC KAUFFMAN

B—Isaac Kauffman (—1738) md. Elizabeth — (—1751).

He is probably the son of Taufferlehrer Isaac Kauffman who lived at Homberg, Parish of Steffisburg near Thun, Switzerland. For further reference see opening chapter of this genealogy. In Rupp's "Thirty Thousand Immigrants" Isaac Kauffman is named as head of one of the thirty-five families settled in what is now Lancaster Co., Pa., but then in the year 1717 part of Chester Co.

Isaac Kauffman's children were Jacob; Christian; Audey, wife of Philip Kuntz; Elizabeth, wife of John Neff; Anna, wife of Jacob Neff; Isaac; and Andrew.

B6—Anna Kauffman md. Jacob Neff. He is a son of Henry Neave or Neff who in 1749 with wife Barbara then residing in East Hempfield Twp., Lancaster Co., deeded land to Jacob and Daniel Neff. Daniel Neff remained in Manor Twp., Lancaster Co., as well as his brother John who died about 1760. Jacob Neff died in 1798 in Hempfield Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa., and at time of death, his wife was Elizabeth Acker, dau. of Jacob. He named Henry Acker, his brother-in-law, as an executor. Witnesses were Isaac and John Kauffman. From a deed executed in 1768 we learn Anna was his wife. His issue: Jacob; John;

Barbara, md. Abe Myers and md.2 Peter Henneberger; Elizabeth, md. Christian Miller and md.2 John Nissley; Susanna, md. George Ruth; Magdalena (Oct. 13, 1764-Aug. 12, 1850), md. Jacob Sehner; Catherine, md. Henry Cassel; Polly; Henry; and Anna, md. John Swaar. (See A7).
